Aspinall Arms 16 August 2015

Many thanks are due to Andy, Sue & Harriet Bleasdale for organising an impromptu noggin at the Aspinall Arms in Mitton.

What started as an idea at the Committee meeting at the beginning of the month progressed from an initial booking for 12 made that evening to a total attendance of 28 people with 13 Morgans and a tintop. It was soon realised, that despite Andy & Sue's protestations, this was a subtle and ingenious attempt by them to wrest the Wilkinson Sword from Andrew and Joan following the excellent scenic run.

This was a great venue for a lunchtime noggin with a roomy pub set in lovely grounds by the river, with plenty of parking space, and surrounded by roads ideal for putting your Mog through its paces.

Once we had all assembled, Sue allocated the seating, since the numbers meant that 6 people had to sit separate from the rest, even though there were tables next to us which were free when we sat down. Apparently, the regulars request particular tables when they phone up to book!

The menu was so attractive that there was a good deal of musing about what to order. The Grants decided to have a starter and a main course, and as a result, while waiting for their mains to be served, they were able to watch first Isobel and then Peter sending back their tepid fish pies after several mouthfuls had convinced them that there was no properly hot part of the pie, and that it was cool all the way through. Imagine their delight when they were each presented with a completely new plateful, at the correct temperature this time!

On Andrew's table, Paul Johnson ordered the ploughman's....

After everyone had finished, we repaired to the car park to look and talk, and this went on for quite a while. Welcome to Margaret and Paul Johnson and their new Plus 4 to their first Norcemog Noggin. If you were there, you know what a good time was had by all who made the effort. If you were not able to come, was it because you get too much notice?
