NORTH WEST AND CHESHIRE

December 2017

Welcome to this edition, which includes for the Autumn Retreat, thanks to Peter and Isobel and for the November Noggin thanks to the Norcemog Poet Laureate, Andrew Threlkeld. Because of my oversight, Chapter 3 will appear in January. I remain happy to receive anything that you care to send, make any necessary corrections to grammar and spelling and then publish it! Something! Anything?

THE CHRISTMAS DO!

There are lots of you booked for this and hopefully you have chosen your menu and paid so that the organisers can enjoy themselves instead of having to hassle for money. If you want to go and have not yet sorted yourself out, get a move on!

AUTUMN RETREAT 2017

David and Una Haynes had organized this year's event at The Buckatree Hall Hotel which was hidden in the woods at the foot of The Wrekin not far from Telford.

We left home on the Friday morning but shortly after joining the M6 all traffic started queuing, first road works then 2 lanes closed because a wagon had shed its load of offal! So a two and a half hour journey became five and three quarters. However we continued to the hotel without further incident. On arriving we were met by David and Una. Then it was into the bar for a very welcome drink. As other members arrived so the bar filled up.

Dinner was in our own private dining room so this enabled us to chat and enjoy each other's company until David stood up and announced there would be a word search quiz. This proved to be quite challenging but very enjoyable.

On the Saturday it was individual choice. We decided to drive the short distance along the M54 to The Royal Air Force Museum at Cosford which was a good move. We had a tour inside a Nimrod aircraft followed by a walk round the museum where it was amazing to see how aircraft technology has developed from the First World War to fairly recently. What a feat to get all those large aircraft into one hangar. In the afternoon David and Peter went for some exercise and scaled the heights of The Wrekin the highest hill in the area looking out over the whole of Shropshire.

In the evening we were treated to another beautiful dinner then it was time for entertainment. David had prepared a quiz. The room became quiet as brains went into action, general knowledge and MORGANS. "Question 8 Fill in the missing numbers 1, ?, 4, 3, ?, 5, ?, 2 This got us all thinking - was it David's birthday or the year he got his first car? - NO - Answers please on a postcard to David

The winners were John and Linda Stephens and Maurice and Karen Gee -Well done.

On the Sunday the younger element of the group had to return home as work was beckoning the following day. Sad to see them go but I suppose someone has to pay our pension.

The remainder continued to enjoy themselves inspecting the sights of the local area before meeting for a final dinner that evening.

We would like to thank everyone who attended such a great weekend, we really enjoyed your company. Good food and good friends, what can be better.

That just leaves us to thank David and Una for organizing a brilliant weekend. First class organisation as always - THANK YOU BOTH
Peter and Isobel

November Noggin Manchester Museum of Transport 12 11 2017

On a bright sunny Manchester morning,
It was on Remembrance Day,
The country was mourning for those that had fallen,
Our hood it was down all the way.

We drove around the edge of the city,
The sun covered pavements in gold,
Around the site of the Boddingtons brewery,
By 'eck luv, it was certainly cold.

Arriving by the big roller shutter,
Our car, it was shining with pride,
Just when it appeared nobody was present,
A voice said "This way" he implied

Reversing to the assembled Norce Moggers,
Accompanied by swearing and cusses,
Our cars were parked in a bloody big warehouse,
Full to the brim with the buses.

A museum of transport it certainly was,
Complete with a café to sup,
A coffee or tea we all did enjoy,
Even though it was £1 per cup

No anti-lock brakes, no power steering,
A Morgan to love and behold?
No, a single deck coach, with us all on board,
Nearly ancient at 70 years old.

John Crankshaw the driver and he owned the bus,
East Manchester route he did tour,
An enjoyable journey past the ground of Man City,
The NorceMoggers all pleading for more.

Back to the café, an extensive menu to choose from,
Surely we're easy to please,
The pies were served with some guacamole?
Nay lass, they're mushy peas.
A guided tour with John, now our friend,
Our memories truly re-kindled,
"I travelled on that when we went to Blackpool",
Alas time, it eventually dwindled.

Another bus tour, on a different route,
The bus now uncommon and rare,
Please take your time, don't ding that bell,
Hold tight if you're going upstairs.

A grand day out and a blast from the past,
The group had enjoyed and were sated,
A good trip home, roof down all the way,
Thanks Adrian, we all were elated.

Andrew Threlkeld.
